Wish Till One Remain
By Angelina_Daydreams

Prologue

A brig*ht white orb floats in the air. You would mistake it as the moon. Green particles surround it like the stars in the sky. On this night, two algebraliens are on a mission. They climb against the side* and reach the cave. The opening of the cave radiates a strong light. In this pitch black night, its own natural light source.

Four: Look at that beauty. It's so mesmerizing.

X: And what's that supposed to be?

Four: Don't you know. It's the Wish Orb. Wish for anything in your life, and it will come true. It can change your whole entire life for the better.

X: Really?

Four: Yes. I've been researching this for years. But it can't be caught by your hands. If you do, you dissapper along with it. I haven't seen this for millenniums or 13.

X: I never liked 13 anyway. How long will it stay, and if we can't touch it, how will we get it?

Four: It comes back every century. It stays for a century, and this century was lucky.

X: Hello? Are you listening.

Four: What?

X: I said how long will it stay? You only answered one of my questions.

Four: It will stay until one person touches it.

X: Oh. But why are we here? Are we gonna make a wish.

Four: No. Remember how I'm a fan of the show?

X: Yeah...I have a feeling on where this is going...

Four: Well, I'm going to take the orb and use it as a prize for the contestants. Think about it. Me and you always wanted to be rich, and this is it.

X: I don't get it. Why don't you just say that you want to be rich? Why go through all the trouble and make a show. How are you even gonna get it without using your hands.

Four: X. Think about it for a damm minute. I always wanted to be like the announcer and start my show, and you always wanted to be rich. If we take the orb, we can use it as a prize. Contestants will want it, and people will watch their moves. When they watch it, we get MONEY. I know that all of them have a wish that they want to come true. This is the way. If we say we want to be rich, we might get 1 million dollars, but if we do this way, we'll get even more. It will also be fun seeing how they perform in the challenges. And to answer your last question this I have this.

X: That's a book stupid.

Four: I know it's a book dumbass! But it's not. It's an ancient book.

X: GIVE ME THAT SHIT. Ok, it says to get the orb, we need some sort of telekinetic power and a genie lamp. Let me guess. That's why you borrowed two powers?

Four: Yep. I can't believe he actually took the 1 million dollars. But he is like that, tho. Are you ready?

X nods his head as Four walk toward the orb. He covered his eyes and put on nine's sun glasses. He holds his hand out as two's power emits from it.

Four: This isn't going to hurt a bit.

Four lifts the orb up slowly. And throws the lamp to X. Four looks at the orb with such awe. It's the first true smile since he's made since he got the eviction note. X opened the lamp, and the orb floated in. Four gives X the biggest grin as he closes the lamp. The orb light shines through the yellow.

Four: X, one day, people are going to be quoting me! I'm going to - no WE. The world is going to know our names, and it's all thanks to the orb.

If you come across this story and read it, thank you. This is my first story, so the grammer might not be perfect.
This isn't officially character one. This is just the prologue.
Also, this is a story where you get to vote on. I'm gonna tell you more when it comes out, so stay tuned for chapter one!

Don't You Dear!

This chapter is really long, so just a heads up, and there's a picture of Death P.A.C.T house. Later in the chapter.

Bracelety cheering, Barfbag and lollipop arguing, and a calm game of tic-tac-toe all come to a halt. Contestants gather around as Liy squishes the unknown entities. The two stand there for a bit until one speaks.

Four: Hello, I'm Four, and this is X. We are here to get our dreams achieved and yours as well.

Pin: Guys, we don't know them. We should ignore them.

Four: But Pin dont you want to have a garden that streches for miles and have dominance over people?

Pin: What who told you that! I only told one person. And that was Coiny...

X: A wish orb can solve and tell your deepest wish.

Four: And you want your debts paid off and you want real friends. We can help, just join our show.

Fanny: Are we really going to let these two holagans make us compete for this? Remember the LOL?

Four: Will you believe us if we show it?

A lamp shines a bright yellow so bright they have to cover their eyes. One tries to touch it, but the lamp is yanked back by a telekinetic power.

Contestants walk toward the floating lamp. One by one, one after another, like their controlled, the contestants start to talk about it.

An object in the back of the crowd is drawing something on her notebook, occasionally looking up. Think about it. A wish that that can plenish your desires. Passing it up wouldn't be wise. That would be a mistake.

???'s mind: Such persuasive technique. It will be great for my research. I could use it to fix it all, the world no, my world.

X: I see you all have made the right choice to join. There's 64 of yall, so get into 8 teams of 8.

Walking around with her head down, she bumps into a broccoli looking thing. He has an Australian accent. A robotic voice startles her.

???: I think she wants to join our team.

???: That's great! I know we been in the LOL together, but I never caught your name, but mine Tree and her is Remote.

???: Oh. My name is Pillow.

???: THAT'S GREAT ANOTHER DEATH PREVENTER! WE WILL HAVE SO MUCH FUN KILLING THE KILLINGS.

Pillow mind: Death preventer? Killing the killings? Whatever, I'll stay. Just because we get to kill something.

Remote: Let go of her Bottle. She doesn't seem like the touchy type.

Bottle: Sorry. I'm just really happy you're on the team! And look, Blackhole and Pie are bringing back the last teammate to join Death P.A.C.T.

X: I see you all have your teams names. Some better than others... You all are dying to get started to get this Wish orb. Would you like to explain the challenge?

Four: Gladly. For this challenge, your teams will split in half and half. The first half will be deer, and the other will be hunters. Hunters will be given a paintball gun to try to shoot the hiding deer. Whatever team has all the deer out first will be put up for elimination. I will give you some time to discuss this.

A sprinting pastry runs behind the bathroom as the other follows. She pucks up a stick and aims toward Firey. She takes her arm back and releases. The stick flies through the air like an arrow and gets burned by an unnoticed Firey.

???: That was awesome, Pie!

???: Yeah, but next time, give us a heads up first.

???: Imagine not being able to run a few feet. Couldn't be me.

???: You're so lucky I wasn't who I was then.

Tree: liy, Pen, argue later. Pie is our first hunter. Does anybody want to join her?

Time skip

Liy: For our hunters we have; Blackhole, Pie, and Bottle. For our deer pairs, we have Tree and Remote, Pen, and Pillow. Any objections from someone other than Tree.

Tree: I told you. I want to be a hunter.

Pen: But you can blend in with the other forest trees.

Tree: I'm going to say it again for the 6th time. They are a different species than I am. I look nothing like them.

Pen: Trees give oxygen. You're a tree. If you stand there, they won't know it's you. You're giving away oxygen. They'll be grateful.

Tree: want do you want mouth to mouth?

Four: Erm...interesting conversation you guys have going on here. The challenge is about to start, and we have to know whose who. Take these accessories and meet us out in the main area once you're ready.

Pillow looks at Tree and starts to laugh. A Tree with a bushy tail and antlers. You never heard of that. Have you?

Tree: Stop laughing. You look as goofy as me.

Pillow: Sorry.

Pen: You won't blend in with that costume.

Liy: Prey, remember your pairs and strategy.

Death P.A.C.T. runs to the main area. Four is seen standing in front of the linked up deer.

Four: THE LAST TEAM HAS ARRIVED. ONCE THE GUN GOES OFF THE DEER WILL RUN INTO THE FOREST. DEER WILL GET A FIVE MINITE HEAD START. DEER GET READY!

Pen: Pie hold my cap.

Four: 3…

Pie: Ok?

Four: 2…

Four places his hand on the trigger.

Four: 1…

Pen looks Pillow in the eye and gives her a determined look.

Four: GO!

The gun shoot screeches across the forest as the deer dash in. The heard splits up, going in all different directions.

Pen: Let's go west.

Pillow: Bossy, eh?

Pen grabs her hand and takes off but stops abruptly after a while. A silence is brought upon both of them, and they hear a rustling sound.

Pen: I think it's coming from the bush. I'm taking a look.

Pillow: I mean this in all respect, but has your stupid ass ever seen a horror movie before?

Pen: You live your learn.

Pillow: Better safe than so-

Something grabs Pillow leg as it pulls me underneath. A scared look washes over his face as he follows her under.

???: Shut it or else we're going to be found!

Pen bursts out laughing at the ball.

Pen: Look! An arrogant girl wearing a deer costume. You'd never expect her in that, do you?

A faint gunshot in the distance can be heard shutting Pen up. The girl pulls Pen down, hitting Pillow in the arms. She looks at her with curiosity.

???: Who may you be? I've certainly never seen you before.

Pillow: I'm Pillow. I assume your Golfball.

Pen: Also known as Bozo Brain Bossy Bot.

Golfball: Shut up with your tiny brain. But how do you know my name, I believe you were in the LOL, so I've never met you.

Pillow: Well, I'm Pillow.

Golfball: Ok, I want to get some time to know each other. We're already stuck in this bush, and sitting in silence would be boring. So we don't get caught, we can use sign language if you know how to use it. I unfortunately already know Pen, so I don't need to get to know him, just you.

Pillow: I know it. I saw it in my research.

Time Skip (2 hours, their using sign language)

Golfball: Tell me do you know my name by doing research?

Pillow: Sorta, I saw Pen and two other guys walking together through the forest this morning. So I decided to follow them in hopes of getting answers. I heard them talk about your stuck-up self and Pen's debt.

Pen: If you wanted answers, you could have just waited. No one needs to know about my debt other than my pals and the bank.

Golfball: It's not a big deal. Everybody knows about it. The only reason you don't want people knowing about it is because you got embarrassed by Gelatin on front of his team.

Pen: I wasn't embarrassed! And stay out of this GB. You do your own thing while I deal with this nosy Pillow.

(They are talking now)

Pillow: NOSY? ATLEAST IM NOT IN 6,938 QUINTILLION DOLLARS IN DEBT! I WAS JUST TRYING TO EXPLAIN TO HER HOW I KNEW HER NAME.

Pen: SOUNDS STALKERLISHOUS TO ME.

Golfball's mind: To think I was making enemies.

The bush opens to reveal a hunter; Naily. She's wearing orange tinted sun glasses, a bag for extra ammo, and a gun strap.Golfball quickly reacts and nails Naily to the ground.

Naily: Barfbag over here! There's three deer here!

Barfbag runs over to the sound of Naily voice and sees the fleeing deer. She gave chase as she tried to shoot but missed.

Golfball: Pillow, you run over to Naily and take her gun to shoot Barfbag. You have enough time since she's slow. I need to interrogate Pen's big mouth.

Before Pillow could protest, Pen let's go of her hand. She throws a stick at Barfbag's leg and dashes to get the gun from Naily. A deer; Book watches from a far.

Book's mind: A stand-off between a bad shooter and a dashing deer. If I take it from Naily first, I could get her out and maybe put her teams up for elimination! But it's not being the most strategic, I am the only one left on my team. Tear it, I'm doing it!

Book jumps down the tree and opens herself to glide. She lands on the ground and crawls to a log. She breaks off two mushrooms and throws it at both of them. Pillow trips on the mushroom, and Barfbag's gun is knocked out of her hand. Book sprints to Naily's gun. She lines it up to face Pillow and shoots her, chasing her to fall on her face this time. Barfbag shoots a grateful look to Book as she runs after her.

Book: Don't you, dear, shoot me!

Naily: about nailed that pun!

Barfbag: Stop with that. She is getting away!

After an anxious Barfbag helps Naily out the ground Four appears once they leave.

Four: (To everyone) THERE ARE ONLY 9 DEER LEFT. (Only to pillow) Honestly, getting shot by a deer is crazy. But you did well. I'm going to teleport you back to your team houses so you can start setting up. Your teammates (Tree and Remote) are building a microwave. They already lost the instructions somehow, so you need to help them.

With a snap of his hand, Pillow falls into a plain bedroom.

Tree: Did you hear a thud?

Remote: Look, it's Pillow.

Tree: If she's here, where's Pen?

Pillow: A long story I would rather not tell...

Tree: Uh, Ok. Me and Remote already finished setting up our rooms. For some reason, she's decided to sleep on the couch. Me and Pen are sharing a room with each other. You can look around or help us with the microwave.

Pillow nods as Tree leaves her alone with a vacant like room. A uneasiness creeps up on her. It's not from the room. But from something else, she can't wrap her finger around. She gets up from the dented box. She opens it.

Pillow's mind: All my books from the LOL. Even a computer and my disassembled desk. They can deal with their problems. I have to deal with mine.

Time skip

She places her books on her desk in the corner. That's all you need when you're trying to find a job in the research section, right? She already claimed the top bunk and wrote a note to whoever she shared a bed with. Maybe she could negotiate to have her own bed. She looks around and gets familiar with her surroundings, only to be stopped with someone IRL spamming the doorbell.

Remote: Stop that, Im coming.

Pen: Were safe!

Remote: I'm deaf.

Tree: How did you even lose track of Pillow, and where's the others?

Pen: I don't know, and it's a big forest what do you expect.

Pillow: Over there.

Tree: There you four are. Someone will chare a room with Pillow, I'm sharing with Pen, Blackhole you get your own room, Remote sleeps on the couch, and the other two get their own room. Got it? Hey! Where are you going?

Pillow: Asleep.

Liy: Let her. I heard how she got shot by a deer and the drama between her and Pen.

Blackhole: What am I supposed to do? Sleep?

Remote: Blackholes dont...

Their voices get quieter and quieter as she leaves the kitchen. She climbs the ladder and sits on her bed, staring at the ceiling.

Pillow's mind: The ceiling is so plain but...comforting...

Bottle: Tree told me to go here. And if you want peace and quiet, lock the door. But hit me up. You seem quieter than usual than what I've seen. I heard there was drama between you and Pen. Is that what's bothering you?

Pillow: No, I'm just tired.

Bottle: No. No, you're not. Tell me now, or I'm asking Pen.

Pillow: Mind your business.

Bottle: But isn't that what got you in it the first place

Pillow: You're really nosy.

Bottle: Guess we have something in common. Look, I'll leave you alone and go somewhere else for now. But sometimes being too curious or invested in what you're doing causes you to not realize what you've done until it's too late.

Bottle leaves the room, leaving Pillow with alone with the ceiling.

Pillow's mind: It's just words. Don't take it so personally. Everyone is socializing in their homes, well besides FreeFood. Can't believe Fries got shot because his stomach was growling. Their called FreeFood for a reason. UGH. I need to get this out of my head. I'm taking a walk.

Pillow walks out of her room to see the others talking in the kitchen. Tree, Remote, Bottle, and Liy are still working on the microwave. Pie and Blackhole are having a calm conversation as she makes dessert. Pillow walks out the door being shouted at by Tree. She doesn't seem to care. A sunset in the East calms her. It's better than the ceiling. She walks toward where it all started; The Forest. The sun reminds her of the glory of the Wish Orb. Suck a breathtaking thing to witness. She climbs higher than the low feeling, and a pleasant sensation takes over.

Pillow's mind: What's the glowing thing in the distance? I want to check it out, but I know what Bottle said. How can I ignore something as bright as that?

She climbs down from the tree and walks closer to it. She senses a warmth coming from it. Getting closer, she sees a campsite and the fire. She climbs a tree and hides underneath the branches and leaves.

???: We got here just in time. Let's hide in this tree. That's what I did during the challenge. Look, someone speaking.

Four: We had budget cuts, and sticks are cheaper than marshmallows.

Stapy: That doesn't explain the scuba gear.

X: If I hand you a stick, you're safe for tonight. If not, take the scuba gear and head underneath the pond. Marker, Foldy, Bell, Fries, Stapy, and Puffball are all safe with 0 and 1 votes. Eraser, YellowFace, you both go over two votes. Eraser, you're here for not shooting anybody besides your own teammate, YellowFace. You're here for being shot first, multiple times, by 3 different hunters from different teams and by Eraser.

???: Oh, of course he does it. We've known him long enough to know he would.

Four: YellowFace, Eraser, there is one stick left, and one scuba left. Th last person safe is...

???: Stop moving around they might hear us!

Four: Eraser.

YellowFace: WHAT. WHY ME.

Foldy: Did you not just hear what X said? At least Eraser actually did something behind all that laziness.

Four: Here is your scuba gear and meet us near the pond to say your goodbyes.

The team follows Four and X to the pond. The team says their half heart goodbyes and leaves them to be.

???: Get down from there! I can hear your obnoxious breathing.

She remains silent in hopes that they'll go away.

???: Get down, or I'm climbing up there and tackling you!

Pillow climbs down from the braches and plucks the leaves from her case off of her. She stands before a red cube and the one who started it all; Pen.

Pen: See Blocky she was the one I was telling you about.

Blocky looks at Pen and then back at her. He takes his arm back and swings at Pillow. The warm sensation disintegrates as a cold feeling takes over. Pen and Blocky run away after hearing Four and X voices getting closer. Pillow hides in the tree trunk until both of the pairs pass by. The thing that brings her out of her misery is the sound of splashing water.

Pillow's mind: Of course, it happened to me. But I didn't talk to anyone, I just went toward it. It made me calmer, but now I have the opposite feeling.

Time skip

Tree: Where were you?

Pillow: Just took a walk. I'm also skipping dinner. Someone else can have it.

Tree: Um... OK.

Pillow walks to her room and keeps unlocked purposefully to let Bottle in. Buy she can't sleep, partly due to what happened earlier, and partly because of the current yelling going on.

Pillow's mind: "bE sEnSiBlE" says the lightswitch, i Am ShE hAs ThEsE aBiLiTiEs says the Pen. GrEaT jOb, YoU mAdE her leave says the tree. yOu DiDn'T lEaVe hEr aLoNe says the lightswitch again. Sounds exactly what I'm going through, but I'm silent, sinking underwater. I am unable to express my feelings. But I want to, I really do.

I know this was a long chapter but read me out (or hear). I had to get everything situated and this was the first chapter of the game. If you read it to this piont I'm really grateful so thank you. Chapters should be coming out 2 weeks to a month. I typed so much that my wattpad is lagging. Have a good day!

UPDATE

The book will come to a halt. I'm not going to discontinue this, and I won't. Something just came up that requires my attention. I would say I should be back sometime in March at the latest. Maybe the earliest being January. I'm not 100% certain, so don't count on it. Could be shorter could be longer. I'm really grateful for the support and the reads. I wasn't expecting to get a lot. So thank you all for the support. Have a good day/night.
